Testimonials

"The WELA experience was phenomenal. Every bit of information added great value, whether it was provided formally or during informal chats. After Prof. Mathew Tsamenyi's Accounting module, I decided to have a forensic auditor check one of my accounts – and the bank refunded me 3,800,000 NGN (10,550.00 USD)! This was money that was previously totally lost to me, now regained. All that I learned from all the modules has contributed greatly to my business and our factory project management. In light of the forex issues in Nigeria, this new knowledge could not have come at a better time. Today I have been made a brand ambassador for Stanbic IBTC Bank in Nigeria."
